SOUNDS

DEDICATION

Mr. Pence, Band Director

One evening in the spring the sounds of H.H.S. change from the usual babel to beautiful music. The spring concert is the climax of a year of hard work by the band and chorus. The story began last fall, when out on the football field, Mr. Pence withstood the boiling sun to mold a lot of freshmen into our great marching band, while inside Mrs. Rappe was struggling to make other freshmen blend their voices with the choir. The band marched for the football games and was a success. At Christmas the chorus sang an inspiring performance of the "Messiah." But on the night of May 3, the sounds of H.H.S. reached their peak of beauty. The concert was magnificent.

Mr. Pence and Mrs. Rappe, with patience and understanding, have made ours one of the finest music departments in this area. So to them we dedicate the 1963 HILTOP.

Mrs. Rappe, Chorus Director

It was here that we had sorrow and happiness.

Through these gates pass many minds.

High on the hill where wisdom should be.

The harmony of architecture and landscape.

Corridor to wisdom.

Enter this wild wood and view the haunts of nature.

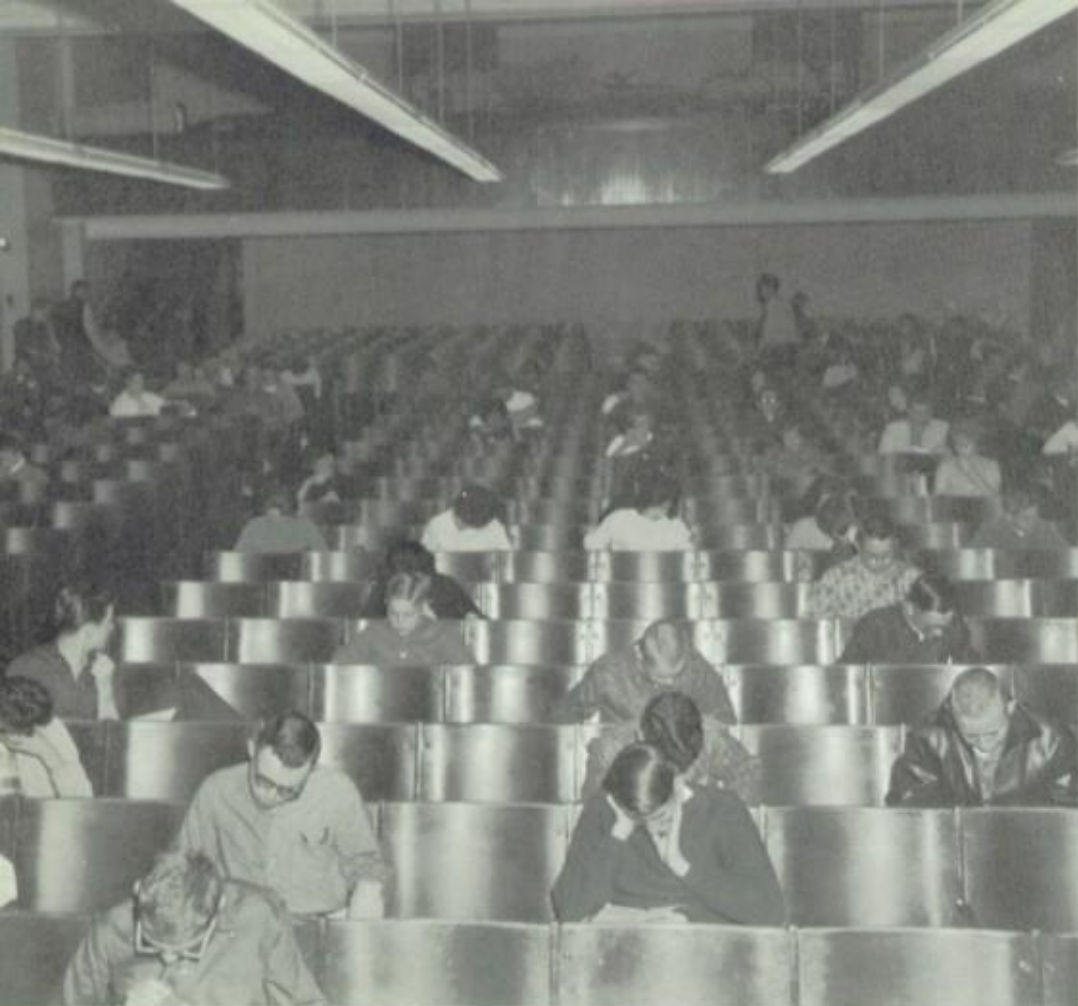

The doubtful winding road to knowledge.

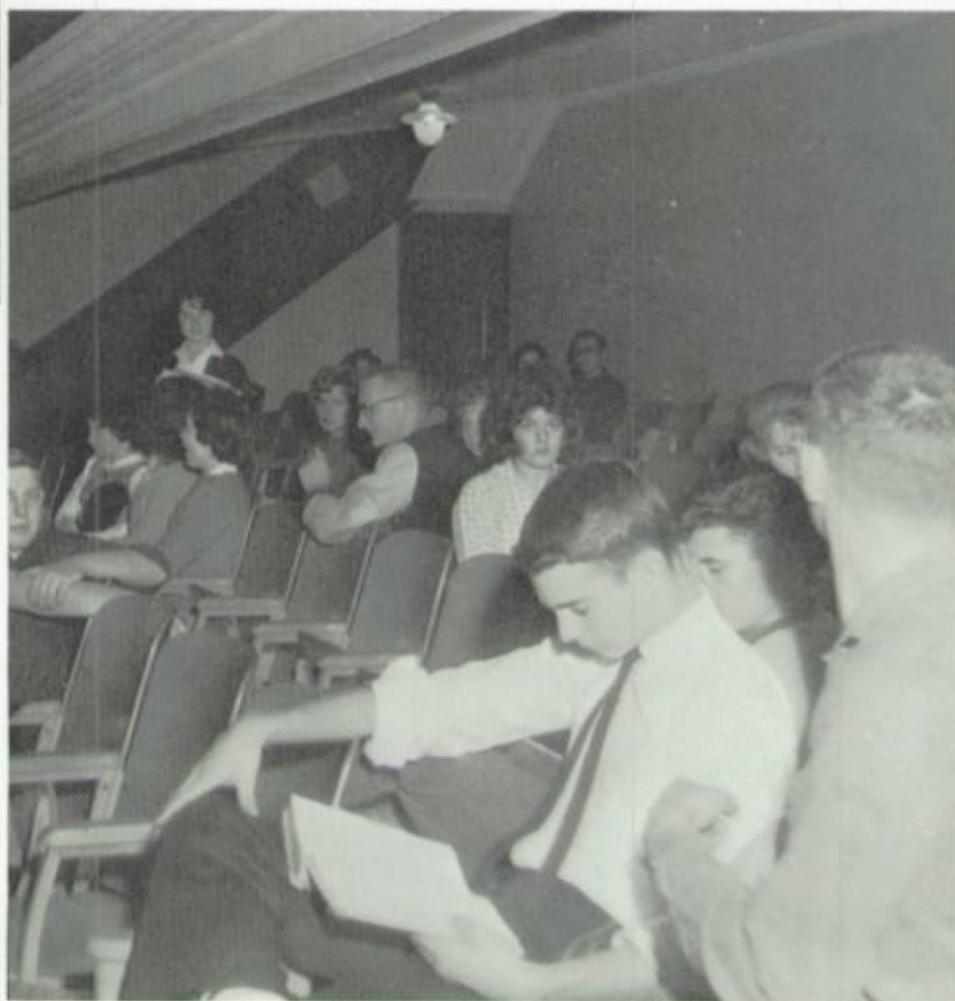

A tree in summer dress.

Shadows and sunlight.

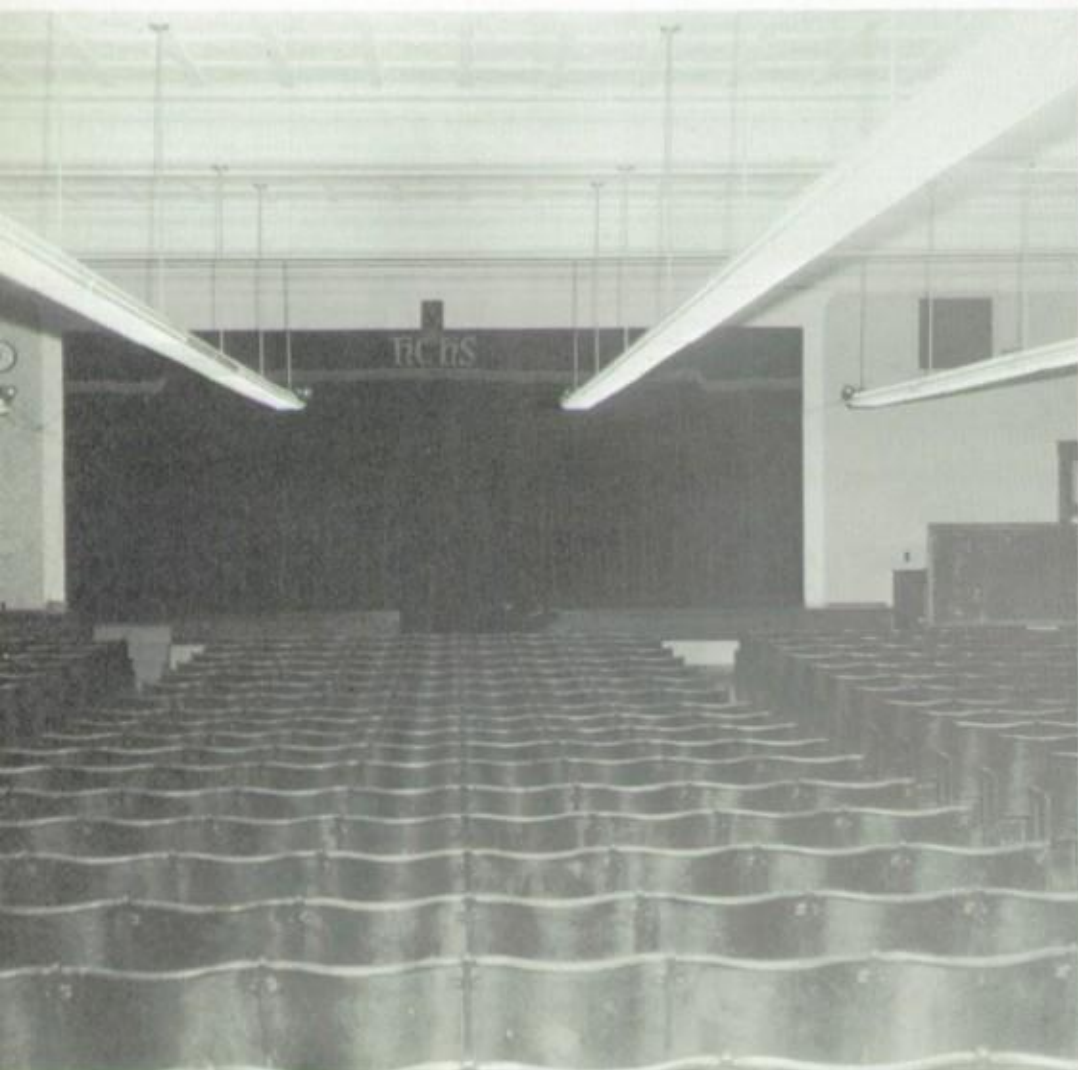

The silent whirring of minds.

This is real self-motivation.

All the world's a stage.

Hide that MAD magazinelll

A quiet roar.

Don't bother me! I'm eating.

Not in the dessert.

We're loyal to you, H.H.S.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

Mr. William Purcell, School Board President

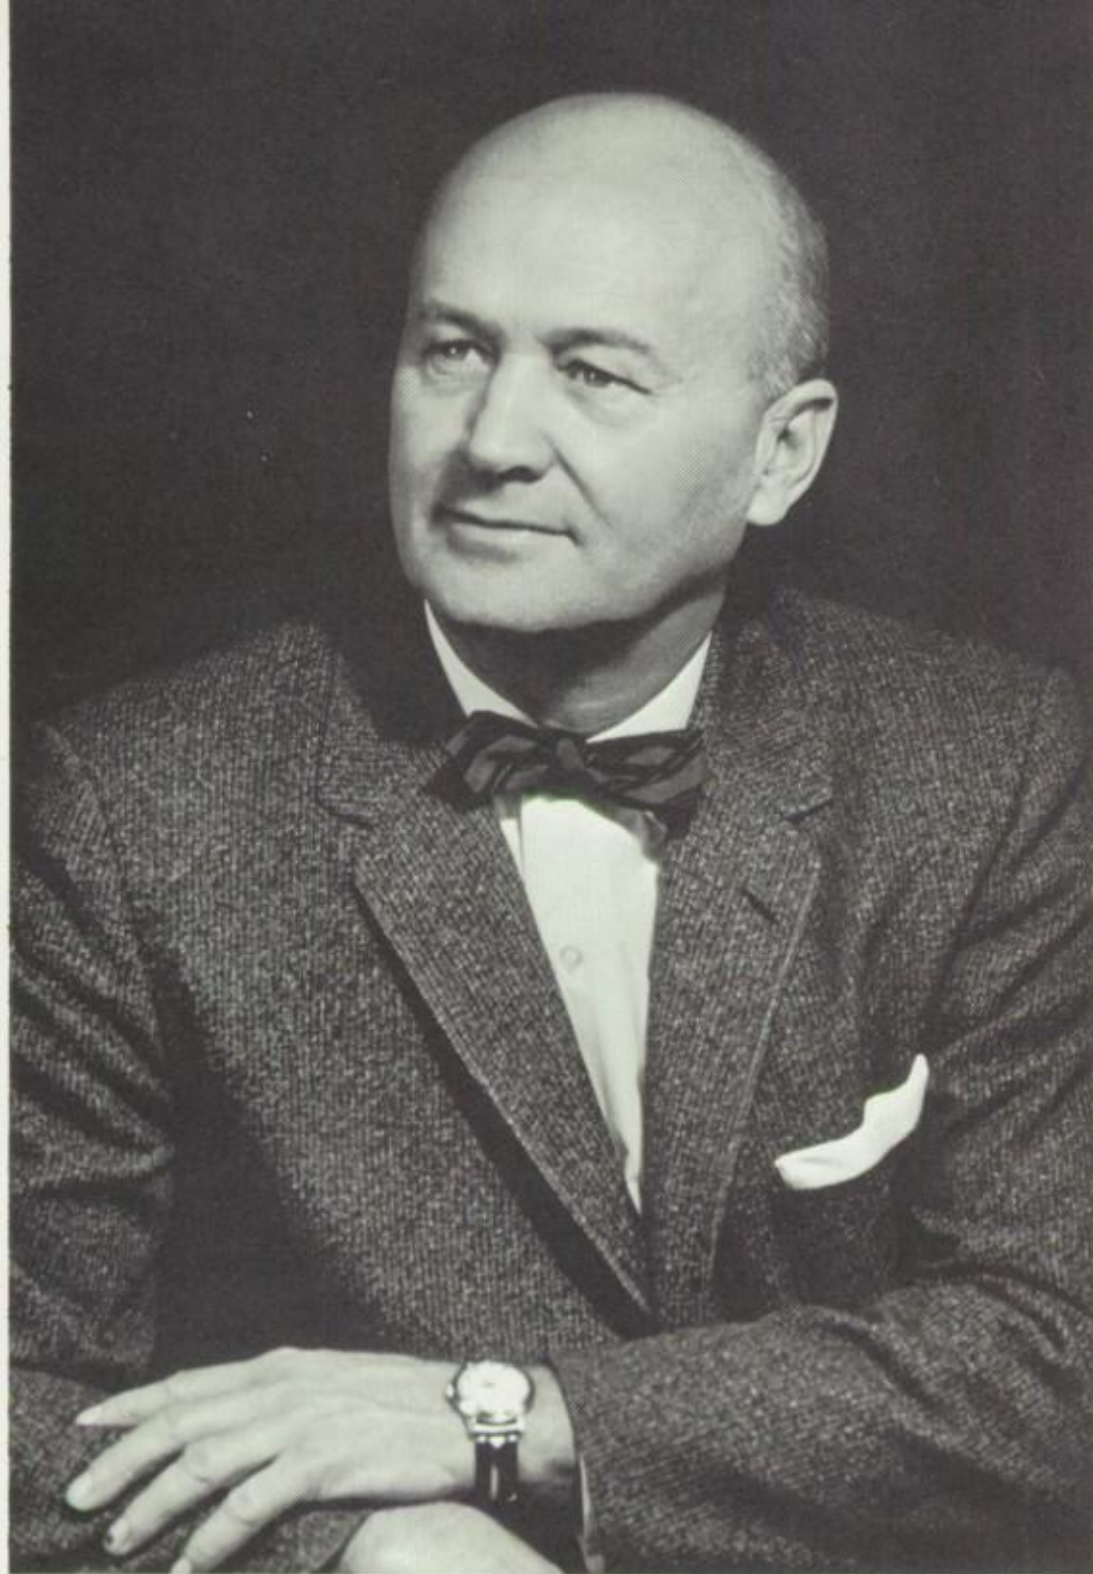

The members of the board of education work hard to make this school system one of the finest in the state. They have to solve the difficult problems of hiring new teachers, purchasing needed equipment for each department, buying books, building, and keeping the entire unit running smoothly.

To these men, we at H.H.S. extend a sincere "thanks."

School Board Members, SEATED from left. Mr. Harold Wampler, Mr. William Purcell, Mr. Don Beane, Mr. Jack Rundquist. STANDING,

Mr. Charles Vail, Mr. Arthur Salsi, Mr. George Brohammer, Mr. Clarence Zerrusen.

MR. DON BEANE
Unit Superintendent

We are very fortunate to have as our unit superintendent a man who is willing to devote his time to helping the students and teachers in his unit. With a combination of leadership and a winning personality, Mr. Beane succeeds in running an efficient school system.

His cheerful smile and friendly ways make it possible for a closer cooperation between students and teachers.

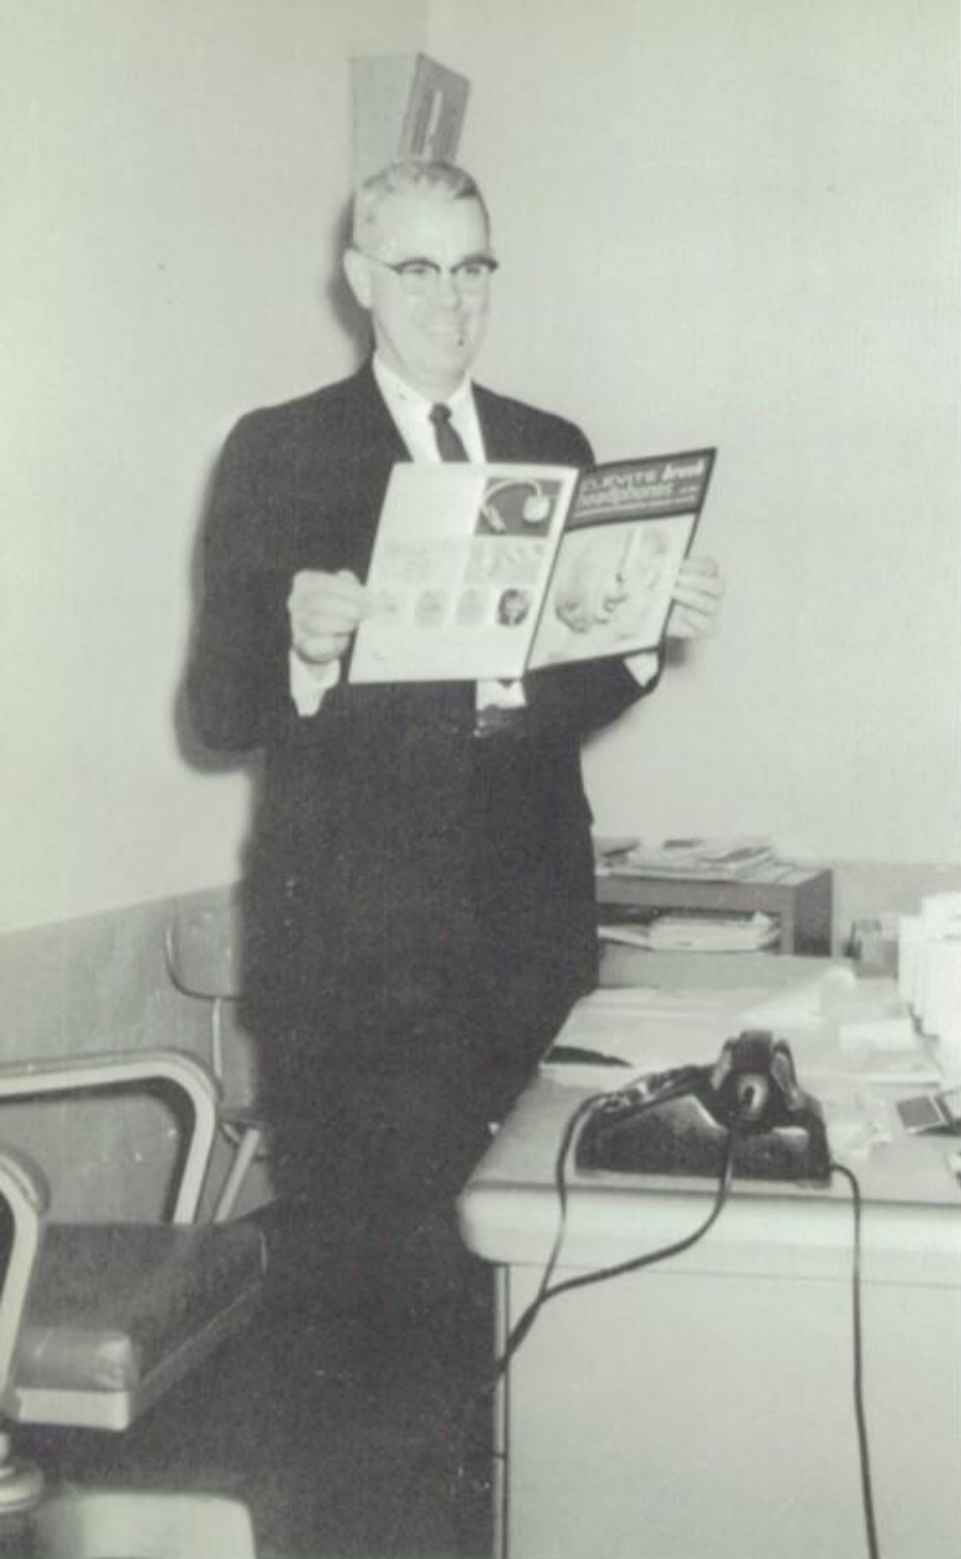

MRS. THELMA DRAPER

MRS. SHEILA STONEBURNER

These secretaries to Mr. Beane help to keep our unit running efficiently. They take charge of many of the small affairs so that Mr. Beane may spend more time with the larger, more important matters that confront a unit superintendent.

MR. F. ERNEST TUTHILL
Our Principal

Mr. Tuthill possesses qualities which make possible an efficient and productive school system. Among these are firmness, patience, leadership, and the ability to understand student problems. A capable man of boundless energy, he always seems to have time to get everything done. With the assistance of office workers, who give up a hall to work for Mr. Tuthill and Janet Lewey, the office runs efficiently throughout the school year.

TO THE SENIORS

We came, we saw, we've finally won,
 For some it was work, for others, fun.
 The first hundred years are the hardest, we're told,
 Rejoice, we are nearly a score of years old!
 We've talent the rarest, at least so we think;
 Unanimous our motto, "Swim and not sink."
 With model behavior, and officers best,
 With able advisers, we've withstood the test.
 Our programs and parties have been quite the thing,
 Our record the best, so let praises ring!
 We're ready for anything, let it come when it will,
 We've been struggling up, now we're over the hill.
 Give thanks to our teachers, our moms, and our pops,
 Three cheers for '63, the class that's the tops!

Class officers: Left to Right: Richard Tobias, Vice president; Patty Hiller, Secretary; Marsha Purcell, Treasurer; Terry Heath, President.

TO THE JUNIORS

While pursuing the Hiltops of our high school days,
As green Freshmen we were, in a sort of a haze.
'Till our officers came to the aid of our plight;
These four were Butler, Tobias, Noel, and White.

While wandering to our Sophomore year,
We remember those days which to us were so dear.
Of our memorable party and program of course
Terry, My, Sherri, and Terri were naturally the source.

Upperclassmen at last with our wisdom and airs,
Who attended all dances and other affairs.
Terry Heath as our prexy, and Dick as his aid;
With Patty and Marsha now we've got it made.

Therefore, now as we finish reviewing the past,
We shall welcome our next year tho' it be out last.

TO THE SOPHOMORES

Freshmen were we in the year '62
This school to us seemed all so new.
We were soon, by our officers, led from the daze
To Paula, Bill, Clair, and Kathy go the praise.
Gay parties and programs were given that year
And our Freshman memories we'll hold ever dear.

Time elapsed and t'was the year '63;
Advancing as Sophomores, we were full of glee.
We chose Paula, Jennifer, Patty, and Jane
Who guided our steps with the highest aim.
Our party and program were such a success
That all had a grand time, at each, they confess.

Two years lie ahead and the best of the four,
Then forever we'll leave Hiltop's orange and black door.

TO THE FRESHMEN

August 28 in '62

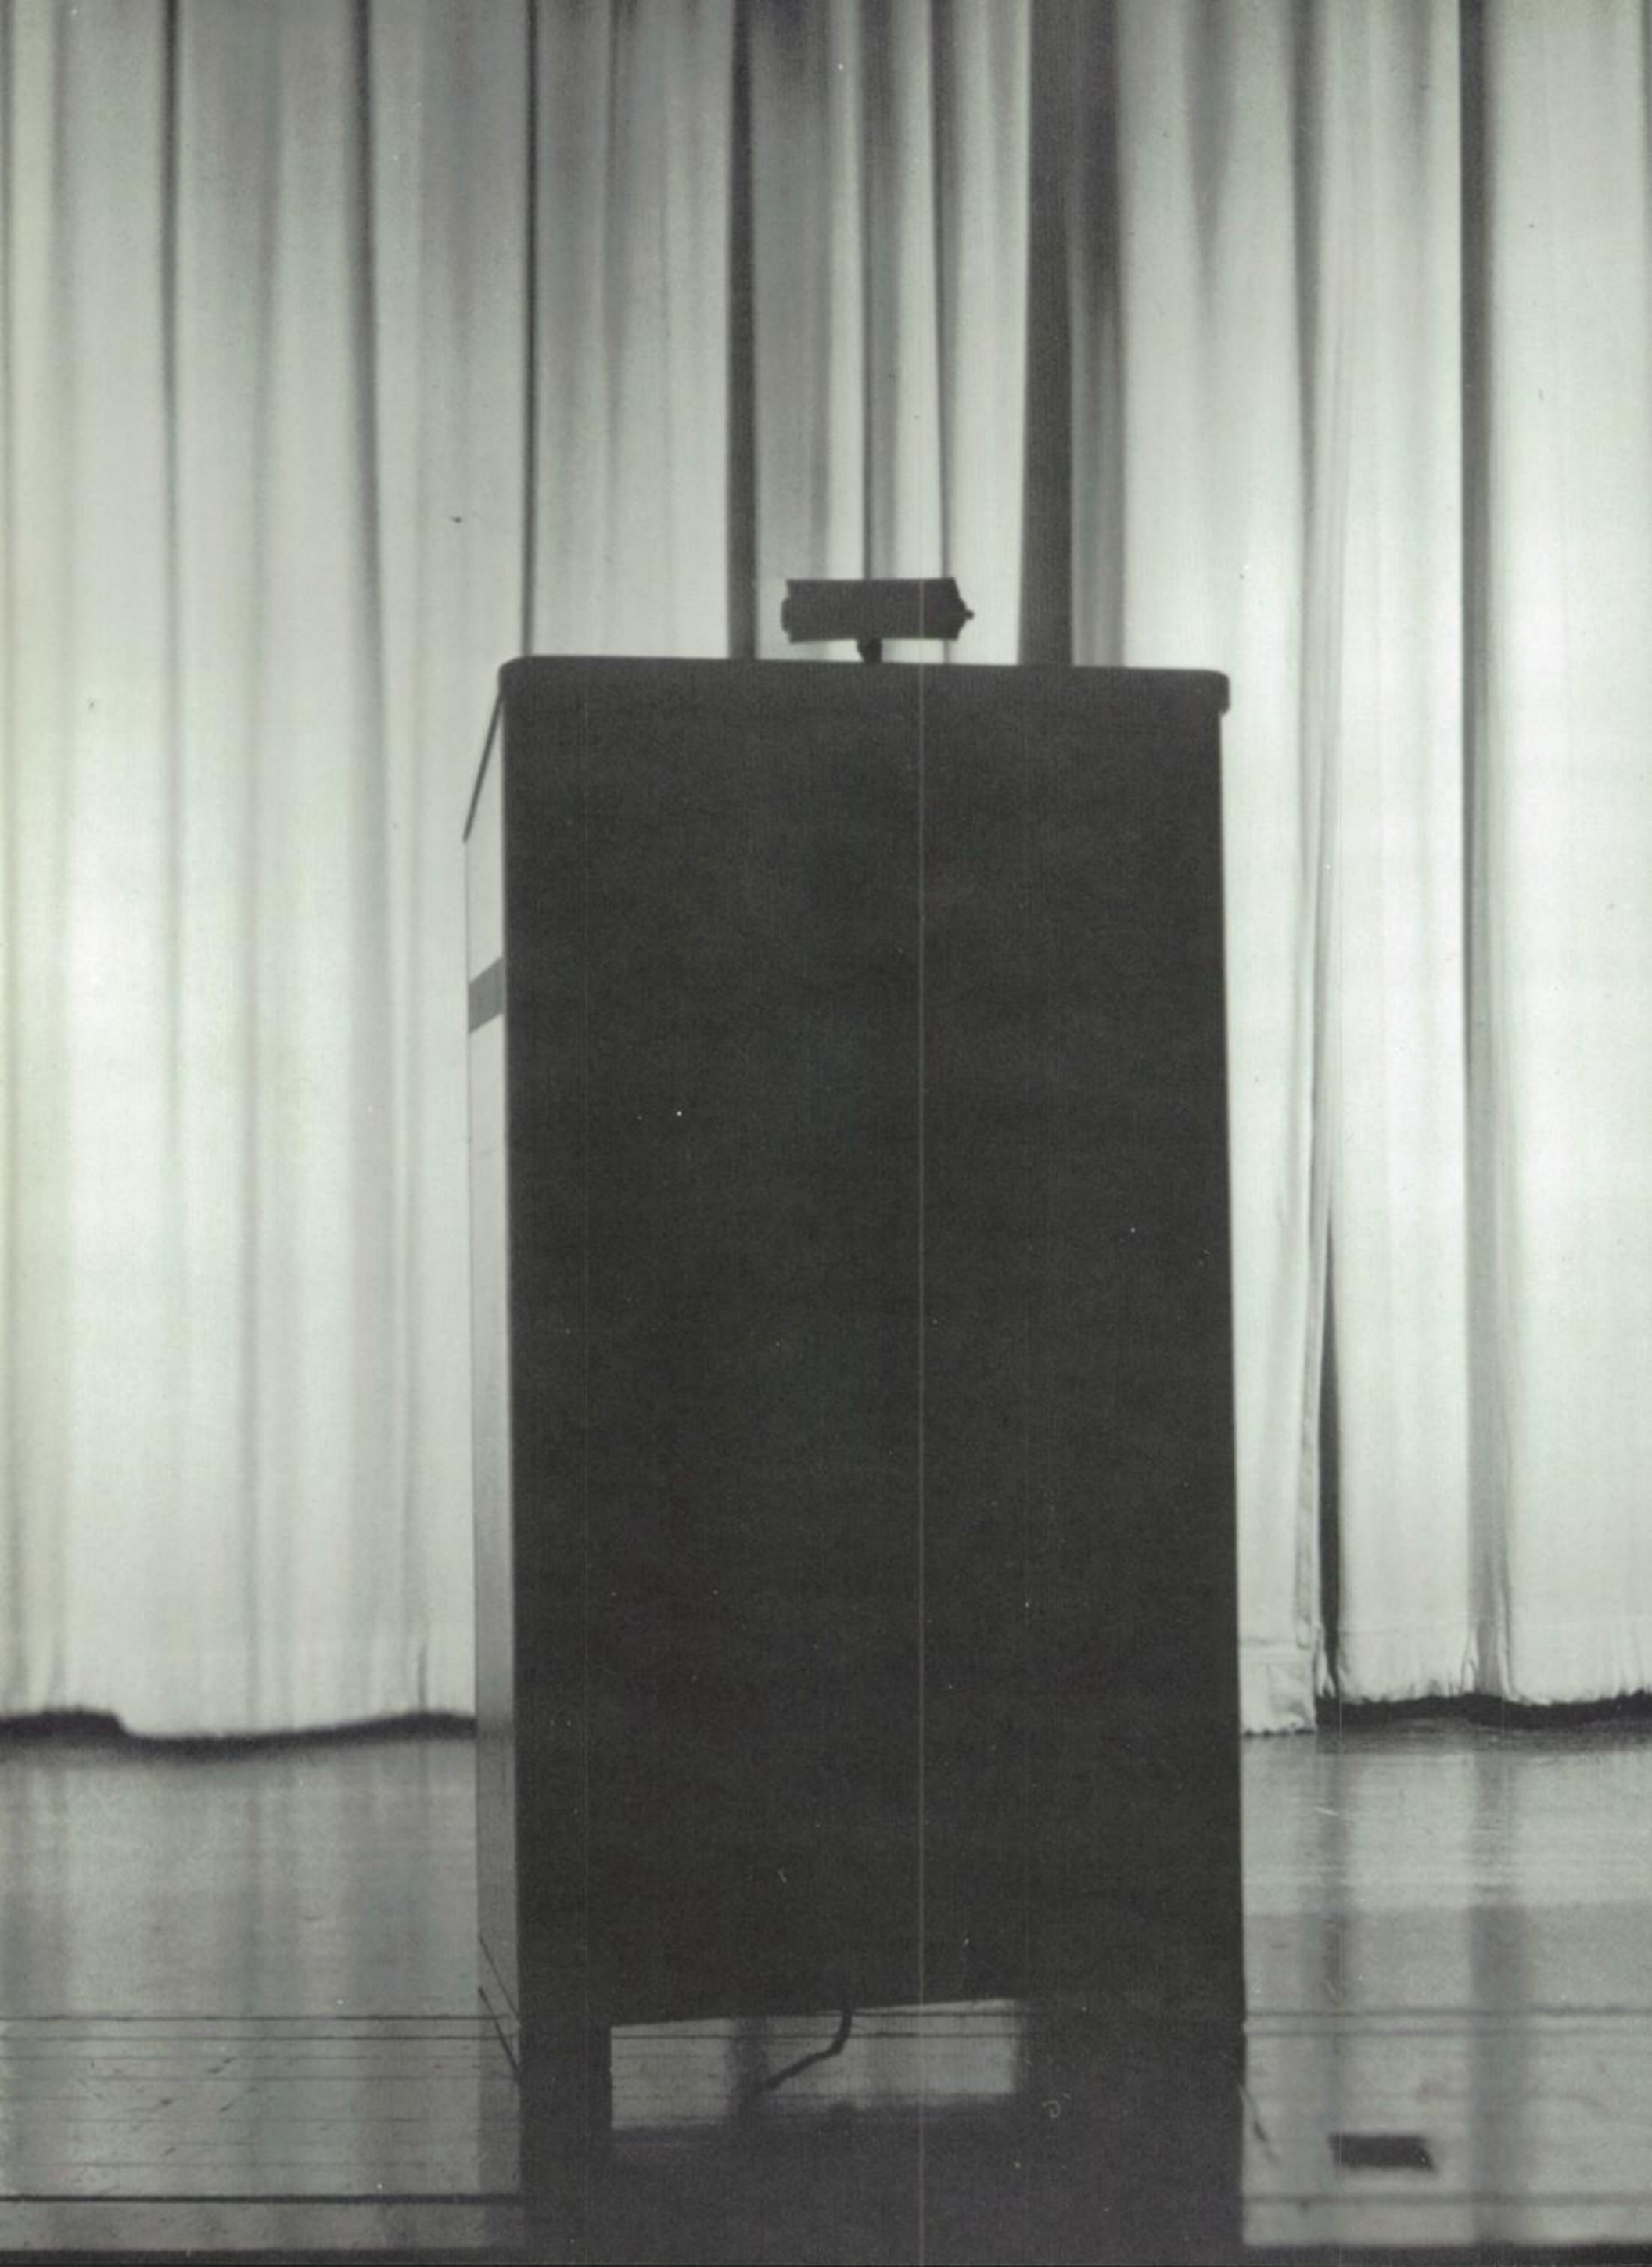

We came rather doubtfully.
It wasn't long 'till we fell in line
And shouted loudly with glee.

We elected Chuck Close for our President
And Bob Myers as our Vice;
With Barb and Jack, chosen by popular consent,
As officers they really did suffice.

Learning how to study wasn't much fun,
But it was all worth it when our cards came at last.
So now when we feel that our year has begun
We find that it's already passed.

Now onward to next year Sophomores we'll become

Thank heaven for one thing —
We won't feel so dumb!!!

THE

EDITORS

Mary Lou Hicks

These are the people who are responsible for organizing the entire HILTOP. They begin in their junior year planning a dummy copy, picking a theme, and designing a cover. They learn that there are many changes made before their final copy is sent to the publishers. The biggest worry next to meeting the deadline dates is wondering if the majority of students will like the finished product.

LITERARY STAFF

The Literary Staff is made up of those students given the responsibility of organizing and producing the annual. Under the direction of Mr. Cornett, the editors first work many long, hard hours. Their work really began last year as they designed their cover, chose the theme, decided on the dedication, and laid out the general plan of the book. As full-scale production gets under way, many long hours are spent trying to meet the deadlines previously set with the printers and engravers. Assignments are issued to different members of the staff. Articles are written and rewritten. Mistakes are made and corrected. The question in everyone's mind is "Will the book be ready in time?" But as the final pages of graduation are pieced together, and the end product of a tedious year's work is seen, the staff glows with pride as it realizes that all the work was well worth the effort.

THE FINANCIAL STAFF

The financial staff under the supervision of Mr. Zimmerman, Mr. Cornett, and Mr. Dagon is the accounting division of the HILTOP organization. It is their job to count and credit all the money collected by the Booster Club and to help in selling candy and soda at school and at the football and basketball games.

Cathy Skinn and Alan Logsdon are the junior editors and are busy this year planning next year's yearbook. They decide its theme, plan its cover, and organize its pages so their HILTOP will be ready to go next fall.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club, sponsored by Mrs. McCall, is one of the most active and well-known organizations in our school. Its members must be presently enrolled in Spanish or had at least two previous years of the course in order to participate in the many activities. This year these activities included a picnic at the McCall farm to start off the year, the Spanish-Latin Christmas Party, a chili supper, and the regular monthly meetings. Through the club everyone learned more about Spanish customs and traditions.

This year the classes enjoyed having Miss Faye Richardson as their student Spanish teacher. She is studying at Greenville College. The students and Mrs. Richardson profited from this experience.

Afterwards Bob Edwards, president of the Spanish club, presented the members of Spanish II,III,IV, who had maintained a 4.75 average. They were initiated into the Sociedad Honoraria Hispanica (Spanish Honor Society). Also the awards for the National Spanish Exams were awarded. The remainder of the evening was devoted to various skits presented by the Spanish classes. Some of these professional (?) plays were a Russian drama, photographer's dilemma, and a mock wedding. THE H.H.S. BAND

The members of the Hillsboro High School Band have much to be proud of. Their prowess as a marching band has yet to be excelled by any of the neighboring communities. Aside from this, is their ability to render difficult concert overtures with the ease of experts.

From this band many have gone out to play in college bands and orchestras and in dance orchestras all over the country. The training the young musicians receive under the able direction of Rowley Pence is a perfect foundation for future work in the field of music.

Even the members who have no intention of using their music for any other purpose than their own amusement and enlightenment are given a lot of fundamental work that is highly educational and most enjoyable. The black and orange uniforms in which the Band performs have a striking effect upon the eye. Smoothly and militarily they lend an atmosphere of good taste to all public performances.

MAJORETTES

The Majorettes, lead by Helen Hicks, are a very well-known group at H.H.S. and have become a real asset to our school. This year they marched for all the home football games and for several of the basketball games. Their "Alley Cat" routine was a big success.

DRUM MAJOR

Tim Moreland was the drum major for the marching band this year. During the summer Tim went to camp to learn new steps and routines to use for the Old Settlers parade and football shows. Then in the fall he passed this on to the band and drilled them until they could do them perfectly.

Some of the many activities included a field trip to the St. Louis Zoo, Jewel Box, and ClimaTron; an Easter egg Hunt with the Visual Aids Club; and a ghoulish initiation of new members. One of the most outstanding events was an excellent talk by Dr. Jim Telfer about Hypnotism.

The group undertook a new project this year — planting several trees on the campus. Through these projects and activities, the members have increased their knowledge and understanding of Biology while enjoying themselves.

VISUAL AIDS CLUB

Top to bottom. Debby Imle, President; Kathy White, Secretary; J. R. McCracken, Treasurer.

When the movie machines was stopped and the lights turned on, everyone could see the Visual Aids club. At their monthly meetings they learned how to operate tape recorders, movie projectors, and other audio and visual machines. They worked hard to learn these skills so that they might aid the teachers in the classrooms. The club was under the supervision of Mr. Sievers.

This year the Visual Aids and Biology clubs celebrated the Easter season by having an Easter egg hunt, combined with a sack lunch, and a bit of recreation tossed-in for seasoning.

OUR FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT

This was Hillsboro High School's second year to have a foreign exchange student. All the exchange students are sponsored by the American Field Service, an organization that arranges for an American family to be the host to a student from another country. We are fortunate to have Takeji Naito, a student from Japan, as our guest.

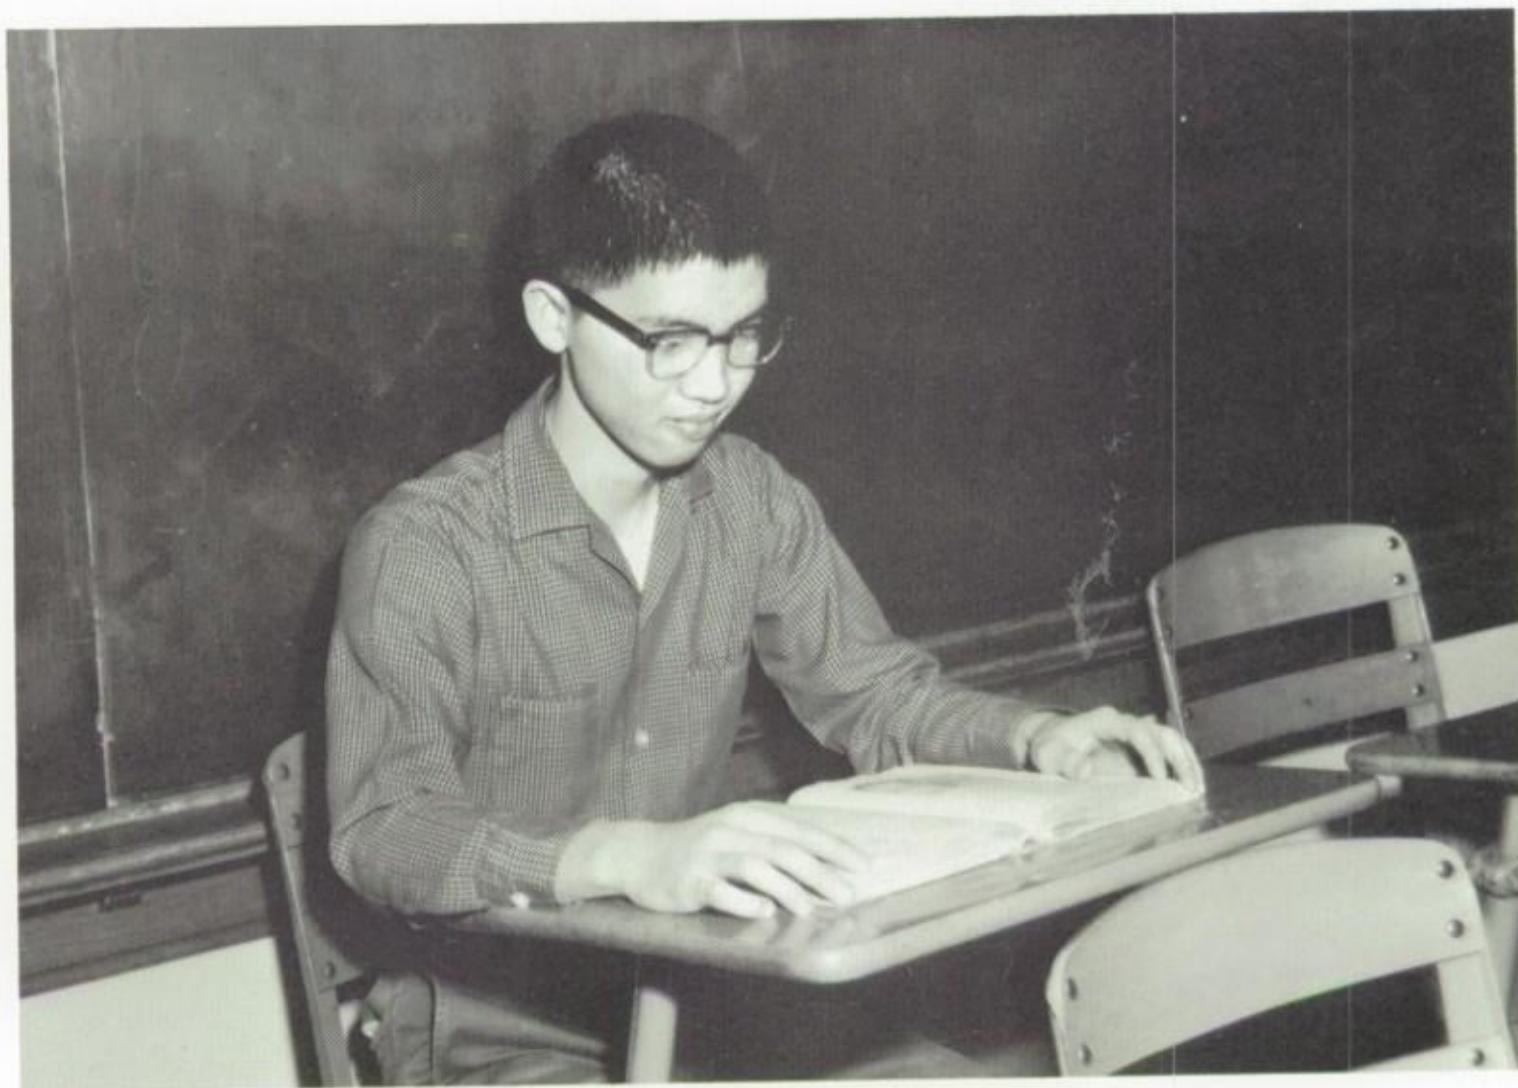

While at H.H.S. Takeji took math, history, business, and language courses. He participated in many school activities. Throughout the year Takeji addressed different organizations and our student body. He said he has enjoyed his stay in America and it will be one he'll never forget.

We, the students and faculty at H.H.S., hope Takeji has learned some of the traditions in the United States and cherish a few of the experiences we had with him.

We've enjoyed knowing you, Takeji.

CHORUS

If you happen to look in room 104 during fourth hour, you will probably hear some very pretty sounds (?), for this is where the chorus meets everyday to get in shape for its events of the year. The group started off this year by singing at Teachers' Institute, and within a few months they presented an inspiring Christmas program including parts of Handel's "Messiah." After the performance the ensembles and solos began working hard for the State Music Contest, where they received very good ratings. On March 29 and 30 "The Gondoliers," the operetta, was presented and the show was splendid right down to the last curtain call.

In April the chorus journeyed to St. Louis to see the "Mikado" at the American Theatre. The chorus ended its year with a concert given with the band. The highlight of this was the finale — "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." The chorus express their thanks along with the entire school for the excellent job done by Mrs. Rappe.

Victory, victory, VIC — TOR — EEEEEEEEEEEeeeeeeeeee!!!

This year's varsity squad had a very good season. The entire team played hard and the coaches worked hard to get the boys ready for the regional tournament on March 8. The Hiltop fans saw the 'Toppers at their peak as Hillsboro walked away from Staunton with the Regional Championship, surprising the ever-confident Litchfield.

At all times the Hillsboro fans and students can be proud of their team for the fine performances and the excellent sportsmanship shown by the entire basketball staff.

GOLF

Excited shouts of "Birdie!" could be heard all over the golf course as the golf team practiced. The team, coached by Rowley Pence, won their first match and continued to play a fine, successful season.

It's not always that we play on the golf course.

TRACK

"On your mark, get set, go!" were a few of the many familiar words heard at track practices and at track meets this spring.

Although the Hiltoppers lost many of its Lettermen last year, the boys put in a lot of extra time and effort to produce another fine season.

U-u-u-ugh! !

Ugh! ! ! Say Jim, how did you do that??

Come on! I'll bet I can throw the discus farther than you can! !

Ah, Lar', what's the hurry?

BASEBALL

This year's baseball team, coached by Mr. Hart, began the season slowly, gaining momentum with each game. Although most of last year's lettermen graduated, The Hilltoppers gained the badly needed experience and by tournament time in the middle of May rounded into a good sound ball club.

They call this baseball? ? ?

And there he goes . . .

The batter's up and he's ready for the pitch.

Hippety, hop to the candy shop !!!

ACTIVITIES

The game began as the Queen handed the football to the captains.
"May the best man win!" We did!!!

HOMECOMING . . . 1962

The campus was filled with excitement the week of homecoming. For a week, the band and student body prepared for the festivities. Thursday night, everyone rallied around a glowing bonfire to back the Toppers. Friday, excitement mounted at the parade and pep rally at the Court House.

Friday evening, to the bright music of the H.H.S. band, the Queen Candidates' Parade circled the Sawyer Field and amid loud cheering Roberta Pullen, the new queen, presented the ball to the Hillsboro and Litchfield captains. At half-time the Litchfield and Hillsboro bands presented marching shows and members of the Topperettes put on a flashy fire-baton routine. At the end of the last quarter the scoreboard showed Home — 20, Visitors 0!!!

Hail, hail, the gangs all here!

Run, Guy, run!

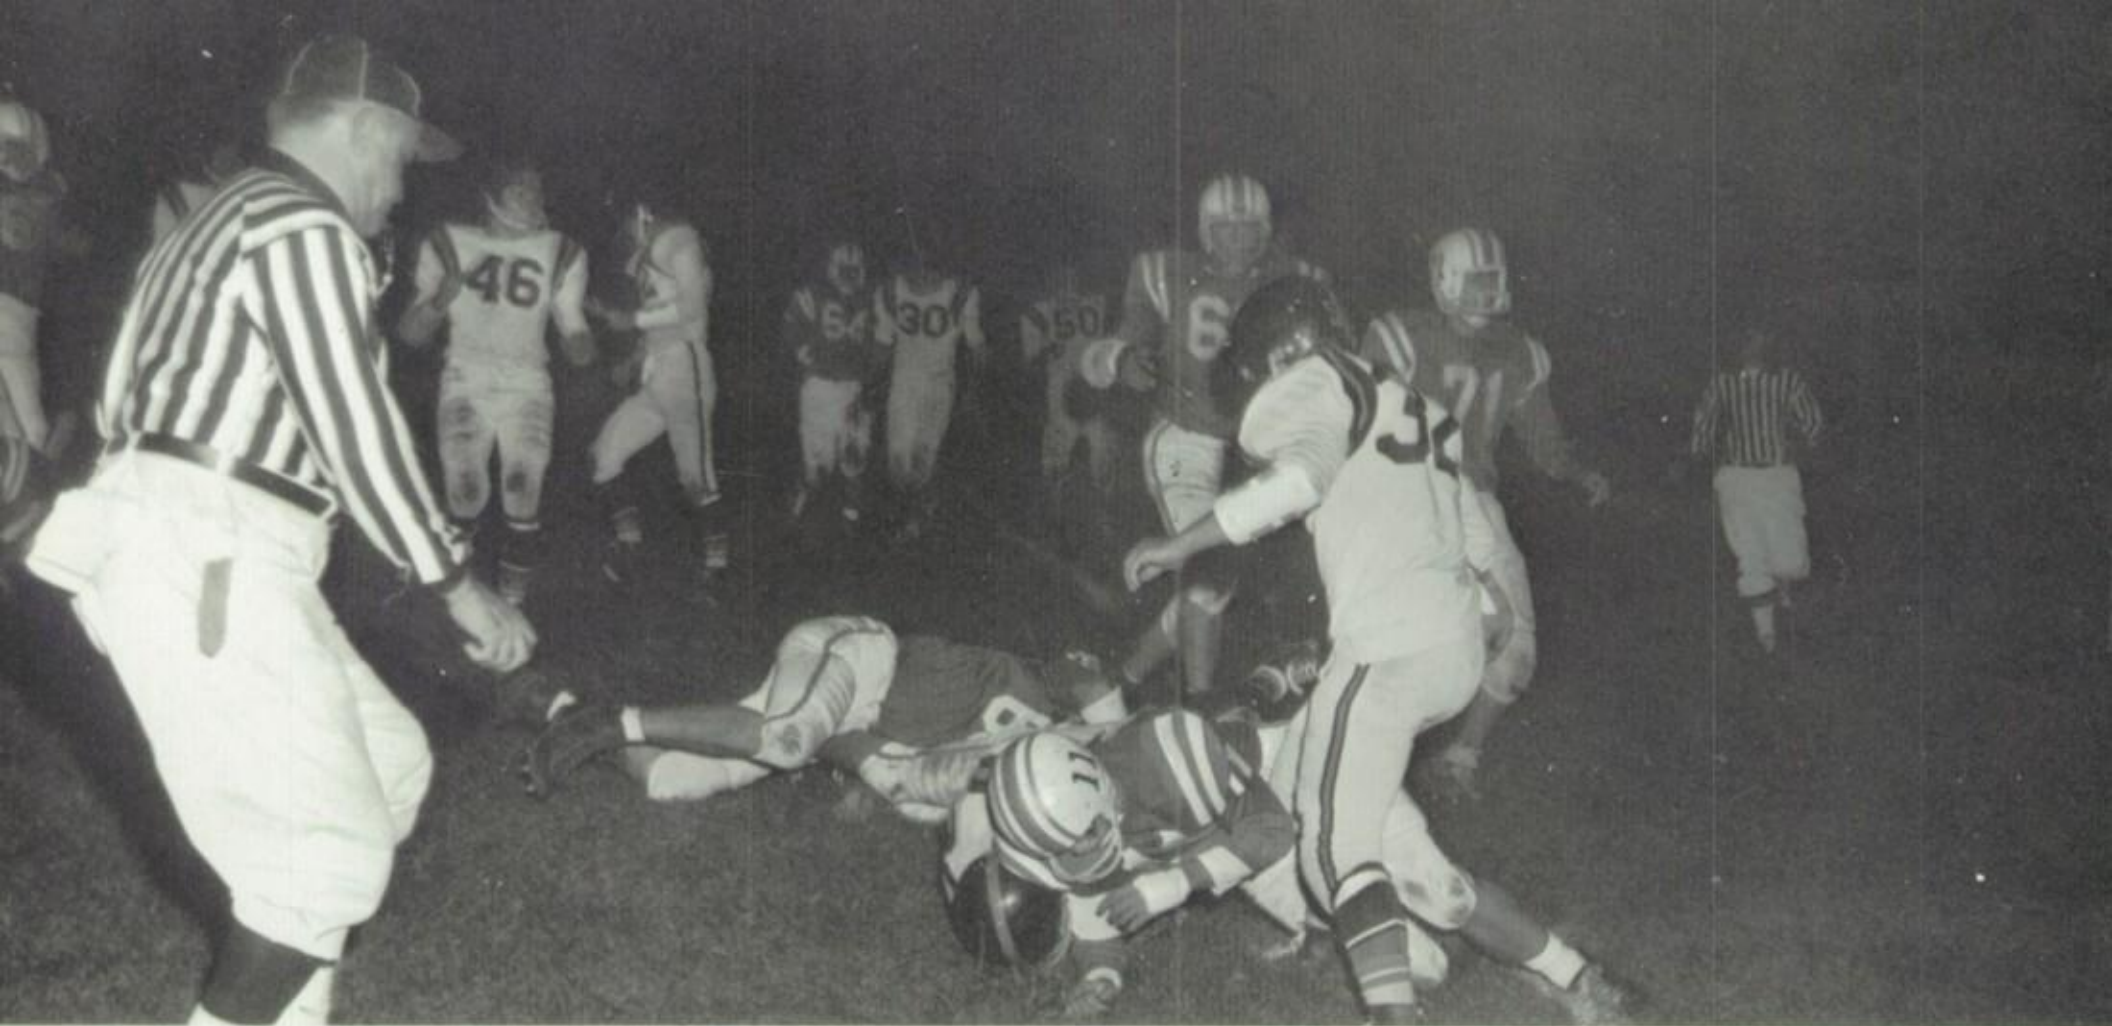

With the grace and elegance of royalty,
Georgia steps from her golden carriage.

Every girl was happy for the big night had come!

Remember how we stood there frozen!!!

We sure hoped her fairy godmother would show up by 11:00 p.m.

Stop, STOP!!! I've lost my contacts!!!

The Homecoming dance followed the game. The gym, decorated in orange and black, was filled with happy couples, dancing to the music of Bill Berutti's orchestra. This all climaxed at 11 p.m., as Roberta Pullen was crowned Homecoming Queen for 1962.

It burned, but it looked more like a junk pile than a bonfire!

Everybody was happy to see this score at the end of the 1962 Homecoming Game.

This is one-half of the Queen's court ...

There was a fan-fare, and then they started the long walk.

Hey, Sandy, have you got my comb!

... and this is the other. Very pretty, indeed!!

The 1962 Homecoming Queen

You said we were going to dance, not just stand here!

I wish they'd get water in these canals!!!

Sail on, sail on, and on, and on . . .

OPERETTA

After much hard work, the chorus, under the marvelous direction of Mrs. Rappé, had a huge success with their annual operetta. This year it was entitled The Gondoliers, and like all Gilbert and Sullivan works it had a quite humorous and complicated plot, made even more humorous by some of the chorus. All of the Contadine (girls of the village) are in love with two handsome Gondoliers, Marco and Giuseppi, who chose their wives by a sort of blind man's bluff . . .

Soon they learned that one of them was married in infancy to the daughter of the King of Barataria, but as it was uncertain as to which one was the unintentional bigamist, they agreed to reign jointly until the crime was discovered. In the end they learned that the daughter was married to neither of these gentlemen, but to a common drummer boy whom she had secretly loved from the start. Thus everything ended well as everyone was reunited.

Oh, Joyce, only if we could be alone without all these people looking at us!!

With a spot of tea and all that rot!!
Sing along with Rich!!

Talk about a sly look!
Come on John. You can do it!!

Pull up that line and get in step!!!

Hmmm ... N-E-S-T ... L-E-S!!
Chaaaaw ... klatel!!

Joyce: Uh!!! (shreeeeek!)

Connie: Geeeeee!

Larry: Well now!

John: Ugh!!!

The gruesome twosome plus two.

Mrs. Rappe: Say ah.

Boys: Ehhh!

Marco and Giuseppe sing their hearts out.

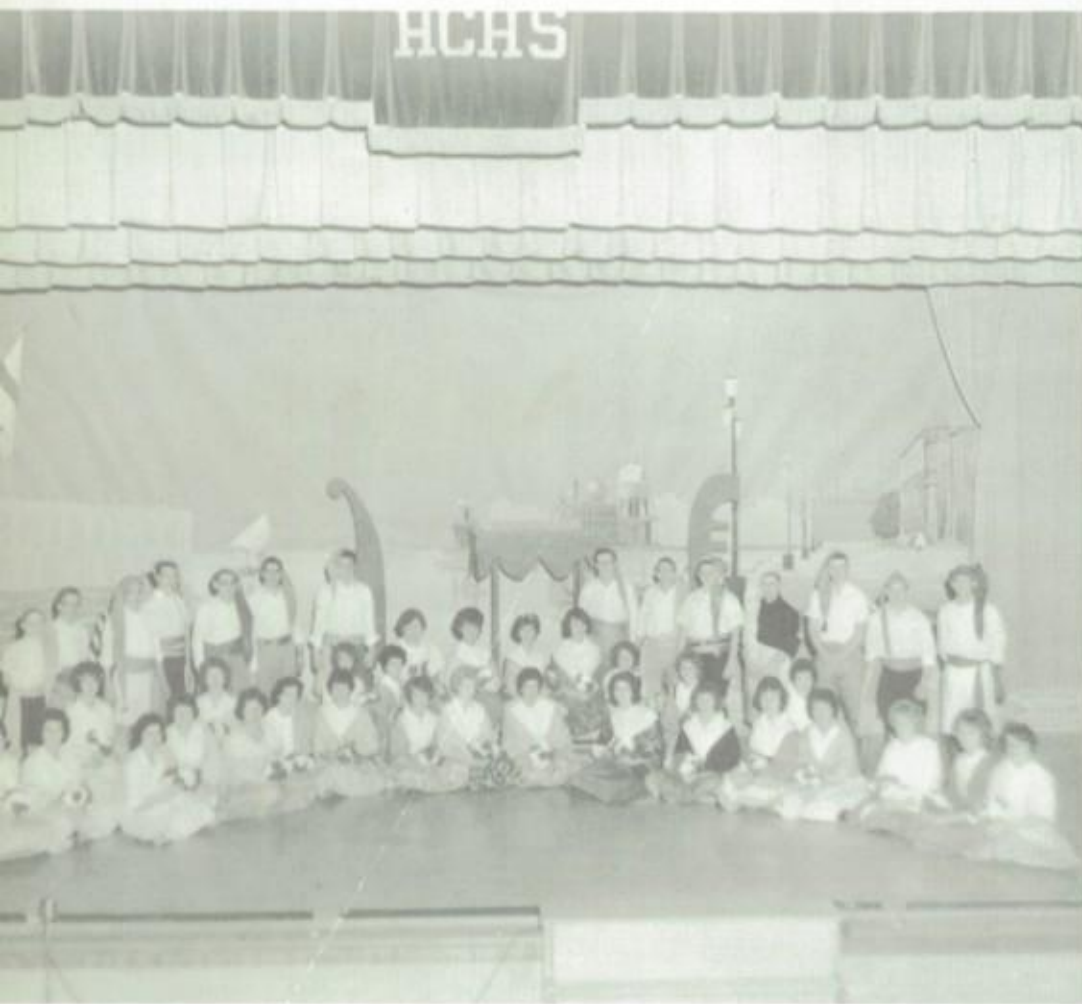

(Boo hoo, boo hoo!)

Santa Claus' helpers?

Oooooooooo ...

We sang,
 "Let's dance a cachucha, fantango, bolero!"

And they lived happily ever after!

He always said his whig got in his way!
 What are the girls looking for?

The leads did a magnificent job, but what's with the stomach ache.

When they arrived at the stable, they saw the infant child Jesus.

I can see it all now . . .

SPANISH-LATIN CLUB CHRISTMAS PARTY

Yuletide gaiety prevailed on the night of December 18, as members of the Spanish and Latin clubs assembled for their annual Christmas party. Everyone enjoyed a humorous skit, the Mexican pasada, and several special musical selections. The group then separated, the Spanish club members going to one end of the gym and the Latin club members to the other, for the breaking of the piñatas. The remainder of the evening was spent dancing to records and eating refreshments.

He tried to hit the piñata, but succeeded in hitting everyone around him!

WINTER FORMAL

1963

It's a sweetheart serenade.

Good grief!

Watch where you're pouring that stuff!

What's that?

The banquet started the evening.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

This year saw a new feature added to the Junior-Senior prom program, as the evening began with a banquet in the cafeteria. The reading of the class will and prophecy was done at the banquet so that no interruptions would have to be made at the dance.

The theme for this year's prom was "Three Coins in a Fountain." After the banquet most of the students went home to get ready for the dance. On entering the gym they saw beneath rippling waves of aqua and white crepe paper, water spouting from a fountain . . .

Charles Roberts and his orchestra played for the dance. But we can't forget the parties after the prom either.

No it's not barbecue!!

The reading of the class will and prophecy.

Cinderella and one lousy coachman.

View from the sky.

"Three Coins in the Fountain"

Isn't love wonderful?!!

Careful — don't fall in!

Here she comes —

I crown thee "Queen Sharon."

Oops!!!

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

On May 10 the seniors presented "Onions in the Stew," a three-act comedy by Betty MacDonald. After jamming a regular five weeks of rehearsals into a hectic four weeks, the students performed to a packed house.

"You got a little surprise too."

I sure hope this box lasts through this week.

"Now I understand why Mr. Curtis is such an expert."

Claudia will never stand for this.

"Sorry Claud. It's fate!"

"I hope you don't grudge things to us."

HONOR SOCIETY

On May 8, Dean Seubert of Washington University addressed an assembly in the auditorium. The purpose of his speech was to show college-bound students the importance of planning carefully for a college education. Mr. Tuthill announced the seniors who had maintained a 4.5 average during their four years at H.H.S. Then, Mr. Tuthill announced that everyone was to go to their fifth period class or else.

"... Joe College is dead."

And the band played on.

"I heard America singing!"

THE SPRING CONCERT

On the evening of May 3, the Hiltop campus rang out with music as the band and chorus presented their annual spring concert.

FINALE

Joy and sorrow filled the Seniors' minds as they stood before the audience for their last time as members of the Hillsboro High School.

Our heads hung low as Rev. Laughlin gave his farewell message to us.

BACCALAUREATE

On Sunday evening, May 19, 1963, Baccalaureate services took place in the Hillsboro High School gym. The Reverend Howard Janssen gave the invocation, followed by a vocal solo by Joyce Guinn. Then Reverend William Laughlin delivered his inspiring message, "Don't Forget Who You Are!" The Viscounts then sang a hymn which was followed by the benediction. The Seniors marched out as the Hillsboro High School band played the recessional.

Eyes front as the Class of '63 files in.

Nervous . . . who's nervous???

Good evening, Mr. and Mrs. Cox.

GRADUATION

Commencement exercises for the class of 1963 were held at the Hillsboro High gymnasium on the night of May 25, 1963. The Reverend Carl Sheets gave the invocation which was followed by an alto sax solo by Jim Lyerla. Mr. Beane then introduced the speaker for the evening, Dr. Preston Bradley of the People's Church of Chicago. Dr. Bradley spoke of the opportunities that lie ahead and the rights of the individual. The Viscounts then sang "Ol Man River."

Mr. Tuthill then presented the class to Mr. Beane, who presented the class to Mr. William Purcell, president of the school board. Mr. Purcell then handed out the diplomas to each senior as he crossed the stage.

"... But there's one right you don't have. And that is to disappoint your mother and father."

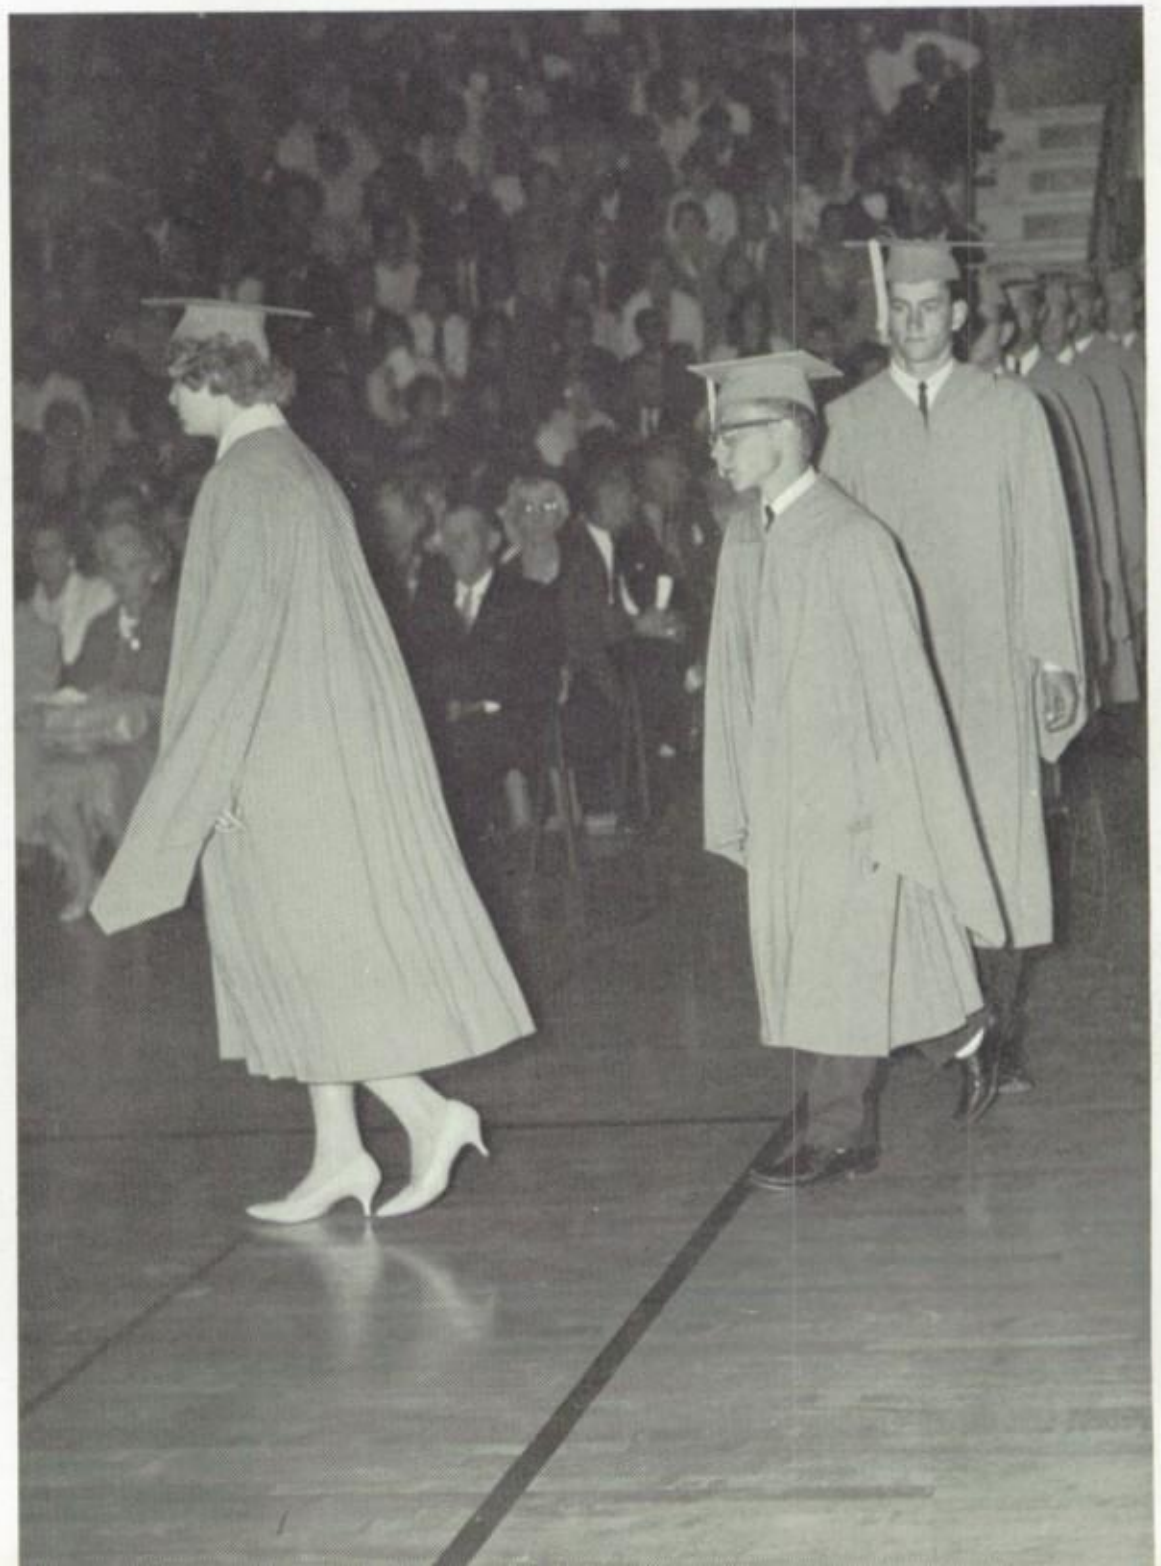

The self-made man?

Straighten the hem. An arm's length apart. Hat parallel with the floor. Don't tripl

"Climb high
Climb far
Your goal the sky
Your aim the star"

Stop, Jim stop! I forgot something ... I forgot to stay home!!!

1963 CLASS PROPHECY

As in all the other prophecies, many years (forty-eleven to be exact) have elapsed. We have at last been able to secure an interview with the number one world wide news reporter, John R. Hanke. During his news gathering travels he has finally encountered all of his old class mates, except Jim Lyerla, who got lost in a Giesha House in Japan. Oh, by the way, John has employed Takeji Nieto as his cameraman. You remember how Takeji, the wildest clarinet player east of the Mississippi, used to pop up with his camera at those odd times.

John's first stop was Panama. While passing through the locks on the canal John found Dennis Manning locked in one of the locks. Poor Dennis was trying to get through illegally and fell out of his ship. Frank Monte escaped though!

Next in Brazil John found Mary Ann Adams, who is employed as a Spanish Dancer. She is MUY BUENO!

Mrs. McCall's favorite pupil, Wayne Beeler, is now teaching Spanish in Cuba. Larry Root is carrying Wayne's books.

Crossing the ocean he arrived at the Canary Islands and found Carl Leetham playing his trombone to the birds.

In Spain Dan Murray, Jim Scobell, and Lee Shipman have become professional bull fighters.

Kay Brown, Janet Cranfill and Glady's Traylor, are working as Court Jesters in England.

He found Sandy Huber, Pam Kirchoffer, and Sara Hurst working as French hair style models in Paris. OO-LA-LA.

As he flew over the Alps he saw Sam Dorlaque on the peak of a mountain playing his swinging organ to the mountain goats.

At the foot of those mountains was Kenny Boone drawing the snow. Russell White was getting tired of white so now the snow is pink.

Down the road a piece Jim O'Neil has been making his living shooting holes in cheese instead of big mice. (in other words rats.)

Pat Schafer is earning more points for G.A.A. skiing. Won't she ever stop.

Jim Best and Bill Baron have a co-ownership in a cigarette factory in Bulgaria.

Gary Birkencamp has been working so hard and still is, for all John knows, trying to develop a new breed of orchids in Denmark. He always was active in Biology Club.

In Italy Guy Sheridan seels his ice cream while he watches all the flavors go by.

John in his travels through the Sahara Desert suddenly ran head on into Marvin Traylor who was busy counting the grains of sand. A short distance behind him was Mr. Ceney, who helped Marvin through all those years of Algebra, checking all the calculations. Besides Mr. Ceney, the Viscounts (Tim Moreland, Ron Billingsley, Richard Shephard) keeping Marvin going by serenading him with "Cool Water." They're finding it rather difficult to sing without Marv's accompaniment.

Further south in the Belgian Congo John found John Mullins. He is advanced to the chief communitor on the drums for the tribe of LeePenaJytsirhC. Also in the diamond minds John found Sharon Ward and Georgia Hayes who have been very successful in their search.

Across the sea, the Mediterranean, slick ole Kenny Ginno's and Bob Whitworth are still sliding around in GREECE.

In the Soviet Union he found Larry Laughlin making his daily visits to the Kremlin trying to persuade Krehchev to attend church. And following him is his faithful, fierceless, fighter, Lloyd Caulk.

And there is the former great American scientist Terry Pocklington, now Russian because of some disagreement with the lawyers back home.

As he traveled south to Arabia John saw Joe Durbin luring the Cobras with his magical clarinet. Down the street he saw CLYDE in the camel market carrying his GUNN. At the market Don Henson and Fred Brown are as usual yelling their heads off auctioning off camels.

East in India John found Shirley Balla tossing hay to the sacred cows (AS USUAL)! In Pakistan he found the great mortition Mike Lutz packing away Dan Lynch, who was lynched by the Mosby Raiders lead by Jim Mosby.

As John traveled east through China, he encountered Delores Lyttaker and Martha Boas pulling rickshaws. They told him the secret of his energy, the Sun.

Pretty soon in Japan he found Bertha Lewis and Eleanor Christan trying to master eating apple sauce with chop sticks.

Marilyn Lentz, Sherry Lewis and Inez Ondrey are each one a "maid in Japan."

Down south in Australia, John found Rachael Anderson, queen of the head hunters, trying to find variety.

Down even further south J. R. McCracken trying to teach the penquins in Anartica to walk on four feet. No, he is still playing it COOL!

1963 CLASS PROPHECY

Traveling to Hawaii, he heard the horns of the S. S. Topper. He could hear the loud speakers, Cindy Christy and Sharon Helms, from a distance the ship gleamed because Jim Romelin kept the windows so clean. When John got aboard he found a lot of his old classmates working there. He was greeted by Captain John Paul Jones alais John Paul McFarland, . . . Down the deck they found dressed in an old sweatshirt and carrying a medicine ball, the great athlete Mary Lou Hicks, the sports director of the ship. Speaking of medicine here comes Dr. Bill Hammack looking for his nurses, Jeanne Gage, Paulett Ondrey, and Pat Frain. These nurses are very busy keeping people calm and unregurgated from his sea sickness caused by the constant swing and sway of Joyce Guinn and Geraldine Thacker. Also trying to keep people entertained is Glenn Bohmer and his dance band. But what's this? Black clouds are hovering overhead. Juanita Denton must be singing up a storm again. Then here comes Regina Winters not helping the situation any by selling her candy.

While down in the kitchen the chefs, Mike Lanthram and Darrel Cranfill, are preparing the excellent meals. Upon opening the deep freeze they suddenly find two stowaways, Mike Thacker and Dwight Huber. While reporting them to Ed Hempkin, the chief radio operator, the Hawaiian Islands came into view.

As he came closer, he found the surfers, Larry Slightom, John Renfro, Burton Hemkin, Kenny Guinn, and Ronny McCulley. John soon found that the surfers had their minds on some things besides surfing, namely the hula girls, Sherri Mutchler, Rita Cruthis, and Mary Beth Frkovich.

John flew to Alaska on a private plane owned by Gary Burke and Fern Hall. This plane has very modern luxuries. It even has a bowling alley!

He has now entered in Alaska and finds Janet Hiller and Juanita Bledsaw, teaching the Eskimos how to ice-fish.

In the next village, Ross Wallace, has several trained walruses. Well, it is close anyway.

Traveling south to Canada, John found a Mountie — Richard Boone who had recently changed from Paladin to Mountie-chasing the notorious outlaw, Mike Barno, who was picked up for dragging his horse. Richard had a hard time finding Mike because there isn't any North Road in Canada.

Further south in the state of Washington, John found Leroy Webster, still plugging away on those dictionaries.

Oh, what an unusual sight, a pyramid in the United States, and there on top is Carole Ewald balancing on her nose waving a handkerchief in her toes. And there at the foot of the pyramid is the great architect of this structure Stanley Casey.

Down in the cherry orchard, John found Helen Carter and Ernie Downey, the champion cherry picker of the United States.

Far off in the forest in Washington, John saw smoke. What's the Matter? Un-oh, that arsonist David Ashomre is at work again.

South in California, John sat at rest in one of his luxurious homes. All of a sudden, the doorbell rang. He ran to the door and there was Linda Fuller shouting, "Avon calling." Ha-Ha, you were fooled. You thought you would be a Fuller Brush lady, but she's a Avon girl.

In Los Angeles, John attended a big league baseball game. He found Mike Eickhoff, Don Whalen, Bill Beck, and Danny Dolan, and Tim Goodson. John suddenly sees the manager in a hot brew with the umpire. He took a closer look and saw that the manager was none other than Eileen Crites.

In Las Vegas, Sherilyn Cruthis has changed considerably. She is one of the most famous strippers in the country. Boy, she's hard on those gears!

East, to one of his old playgrounds, John found Dick Bunton on a Coffee-n plantation.

Up the road to Hillsboro, Jane Heath is still plugging away behind Mobley's counter. Will her soldier-boy ever come home?

Further East to Indianapolis, Hal Hicks and Fred Wildt were found on the Indianapolis 500. They crossed the finish line as Lana Laurent waved the flag.

John returned to New York where he encountered Art Skinner, the world renoun dermatologist. He working on taking spots off his zebras (?)

John looked up and round one of the tallest buildings in the town belonged to Larry Werner, owner of Werners Bras Inc.

Another boy who was successful in owning his own company is Jerry Tidwell, owner of Jerry's Jumpers. That's a trampoline company, you know.

Down fifth avenue John saw Melvin Blades, as sharp as ever.

In Washington D. C. Bobbi Pullen has just completed her first term as President of the United States.

Now that John is retiring from his work, he has taken up his hobby as H.H.S. News Reporter. But he has no worries about the world because mighty Dick Stone is holding it up.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The 1963 HILTOP staff wishes to thank the many people who helped with this year's HILTOP.

The staff thanks John Straub for his helpful suggestions to make this a better yearbook.

Our yearbook isn't possible if we don't have pictures. So to all the photographers — Rembrandt Studio from St. Louis, James E. Fletcher of Decatur, J. R. Elliott, and Mrs. Dan Hoover, we give a large vote of thanks for your excellent work.

We want to thank all the Faculty and coaches for their cooperation. We're sorry we interrupted your classes so often. And to you, Mr. Beane, we especially want to thank for all the time and consideration you have given the staff.

Finally, we give a great big THANK YOU to Mr. Cornett, our "Daddy," who helped us to work hard on this year's HILTOP. And we also thank you for the most enjoyable trip to Chicago any Literary Staff could have, even though we didn't get much sleep, and we walked, and walked, and walked . . .!!! Thanks a lot for a really great time.
